

Those selected post graduate candidates coming for admission to Silchar Medical College, Silchar, the guidelines follows – (Admission and submission of documents physically)

- i. Your swab will be taken at arrival area in airport, then to be kept in institutional quarantine.
- ii. Testing of the samples will be done on priority basis results of which will be intimated to you over phone.
- iii. After getting the result of swab test (If negative) will be called to institute for physical appearance.
- iv. Those coming to Silchar, other than by air should report to the institute for taking swab and after taking swab they will be sent for institutional quarantine. After getting result of swab (if negative) will be called upon for physical appearance.
- v. Date of arrival to Silchar may be intimate by mail to admissionsmc2020@gmail.com at the earliest, so that we can arrange accordingly.

N.B. There is no hostel facility to quarantine inside SMCH, Silchar campus, for which district administration is taking responsibility for quarantine.